AIIMS Nagpur Celebrates World Plastic Surgery Day with Comprehensive Cadaveric and Video Operative Workshop

NAGPUR, INDIA – July 13, 2025 – The Department of Burns and Plastic Surgery at AIIMS Nagpur successfully hosted a comprehensive Cadaveric Dissection Workshop, CME, and Video Operative Workshop today, commemorating World Plastic Surgery Day. The event, held from 8 AM to 5 PM, attracted over 50 plastic surgeons and MCh residents from various medical colleges across Nagpur and the Vidarbha region, providing a significant platform for advanced surgical education.

The workshop featured an esteemed panel of national and international faculty, including Dr. Sanjay Parashar from Dubai, Dr. Nitin Mokal from Mumbai, and Dr. Rajat Gupta from Delhi. These experts delivered invaluable insights and demonstrations on a range of facial aesthetic procedures. Participants engaged in hands-on cadaveric dissections, learning techniques for facelift, neck lift, blepharoplasty, midface lift, and forehead and brow lift. Additionally, detailed videos of actual surgical procedures were showcased, offering a unique and immersive learning experience. Comprehensive explanations on facial aesthetic procedures, including the nuances of Botox and fillers, were also provided, enhancing the understanding of both surgical and non-surgical interventions.

The ceremony was inaugurated by chief guest Dr. Prashant P. Joshi, Executive Director and CEO of AIIMS Nagpur, who lit the traditional diya. Dr. Joshi emphasized the crucial role of plastic and cosmetic surgery in treating a wide spectrum of conditions, from cosmetic enhancements and trauma reconstruction to burn management, malignancy reconstruction, and congenital anomaly corrections. Dr. Satish Kale, a senior plastic surgeon and former Professor and Head at GMC Nagpur, along with Dr. Mrunal Phatak, Dean Academics at AIIMS Nagpur, graced the event as Guests of Honor, further highlighting its importance. IMA , ASN , CIAPS and AMS were involved in this event Dr Nikhil Balankhe was an MMC observer in this event .

This workshop served as a vital platform for knowledge exchange and skill enhancement, significantly contributing to the advancement of plastic surgery in the region.
